CHRIS "O"

Chris,
I don't know where to start! You've been one of the best friends I could ever have! This summer you'll have to come over and swim & I'll have a little party or something. Don't give up on Chris! You're too cute & there's millions of them that want your body! Well, I love you!

Love always,
Paige

Chris -
Well - we've gotten this far and next year you'll be a studley sophmore! Wow. I hope I'll have some classes with you next year. Have a great summer!

Love Ya -
Laura

Chris,
I know we haven't really been close this year but I hope we can be closer friends next year! It seems like something always gets in the way and I get mad (like those notes and everything) but I do hope we can be friends again. Have fun over the Summer.

Love,
Lesley

Chris,

Wasn't Biology a BLAST!!! xoo Dissecting frogs (yum yum) counting butterflies, etc... What an experience!... I'm really glad I got to know you better this year! Just think next year we'll be Sophomores, driving around town!!!

Have fun this summer and keep in Touch.

Love ya,

P.S. I can't wait till Halloween!!! :)

Chris (Tori),
I'm really glad we've been friends since 2nd grade. Such a high goal keeper. Keep it up. Don't need to tell you to have a great summer. Love ya Baby

Lassies practice
For perfection

Practice, practice, practice! That's exactly what the Lassies did to prepare for their various performances. Starting in June the Lassies began practice at 7 a.m. every morning in the Grant Street parking lot. They learned various formations, bugle calls, drum cadences, and whistles. Besides performing at athletic and school events, the Lassies had a total of six parades on their schedule. They placed first, third and second in the Stockton, Southwest Missouri State University, and Christmas parades, respectively. To prepare for the parades, the girls endurance marched for one and a half hours two weeks in advance of a parade. Although Lassies was time consuming and practices were hard, Senior Lassie Christy Naegler said, "There were a lot of times that we felt like we wanted to give up, but after a performance we knew it had been worth it."

Instrumentalists shine

Music is an important part of each day because it makes us smile, makes us cry, and makes us realize how important and wonderful life is. Parkview had its own way of providing music with eight instrumental organizations. Orchestra, musical students who played strings, flutes, and other instruments, attended the Tri-State Music Festival in Enid, Oklahoma. Symphonic Band was involved in concerts and assemblies and made plans to attend the World's Fair in Knoxville, Tennessee. Concert Band was a select group of freshman musicians who presented several concerts through the year.

Council works Together

Student Council held several meetings through the year to vote on bills and amendments and to help with school events. Each representative was responsible to relay the happenings of each meeting to his sixth hour class and voice that class's opinion at the next meeting. One of many projects the council was involved in was Secret Pals. Each representative and alternate was assigned a teacher who was to be his secret pal that year.

Cabinet and Class Officers lead way

Cabinet had a very busy year. It started this summer before school began. Members had a three-day retreat to brainstorm ideas for the coming year. One of these ideas was the homecoming theme, "Fiesta Real." A new project was hosting the 3-D movie, "The Creature From the Black Lagoon," shown on Friday the 13th of November. They also organized spirit days, including Western Day, Sweat Day, Green and Gold Day, and Sixties Day. Class officers were in charge of their individual classes. Along with trying to promote class spirit, each class provided the school with monthly calendars which were hung in the Student Center.

Student workers Help cafeteria Office, Library

Many students gave up their study hall to work in the office, library, and cafeteria. This gave students a chance to see how the office, library, and cafeteria operated on a daily basis. Without the help of these students the other workers would have had a heavier work load.

Language clubs Provide interest

Canterbury Society, Parkview's English Club, was small but busy this year. They attended "Same Time, Next Year" at Springfield Little Theatre, held Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas parties, and selected Parkview's entries for the city-wide anthology, "Unicorns and Daisies." French Club allowed students to participate in activities that would enrich their knowledge of the French lifestyle and language. The club attended French plays including "The Little Prince" at Southwest Missouri State University and "Tartuffe" at Drury College. The Latin Club caroled at Heer's in their newly-learned language and celebrated Roman holidays.

FBLA provides insight

Preparing for the future is the most important reason for attending school. Many extracurricular clubs also help students prepare for the future. One such club is the Future Business Leaders of America. FBLA teaches students more about the business world and how it operates. FBLA gives opportunities for experiences in business related fields. This year the club went to KY-3 to observe how people function in a demanding job. Students also competed with other FBLA clubs in events such as typing, accounting, and economics.

Key Club serves

The community

The Parkview Key Club completed another year of service to the school and the community. Key Club, an affiliate of Kiwanis International, was sponsored by Mr. Gene Buyan. Key Club members were involved in many service projects such as putting locks on school lockers the week before school started.

DECA, VICA aid Job experience

The Vocational Industry Club of America (VICA) and the Distributive Education Club (DECA) were clubs for those students who were enrolled in Cooperative Education. Both clubs reinforced classroom instruction and on-the-job training. Mr. Jim Dunlop and Mr. Kent McDaniel sponsored trips to meetings as well as fund raising activities.

Clubs are fun

The Science, Wizards, and Chess Clubs provided exciting activities for members. The Chess Club competed in the ancient game of strategy with other schools. The Wizards also played games such as Dragons and Dungeons. The Science Club met after school to experiment with some equipment and computers. They also had a Rubic cube solution contest.

Pep Club sparks teams

The Pep Club cheered at football games giving the team inspiration and spirit to beat their opponents. They also cheered at basketball games helping the cheerleaders support the teams. The club members also made signs for wrestling, basketball, and football seasons. Sponsors Ms. Linda DeBusk and Ms. Lynn Lutjen also worked very hard to see that the club worked smoothly.

Cheerleaders add pep

Special and Junior Varisty Cheerleaders supported the freshman and JV teams during football, basketball, and wrestling seasons. The Special Cheerleaders performed at all freshman games and at some wrestling meets. The JV Cheerleaders performed at all JV games and matches. Both squads performed with the Varsity squad in assemblies such as "We Are Parkview." The Varsity also performed at all Varsity games and provided cookies and drinks in the pre-season. Of course, they led cheering crowds.

Seniors begin
The final year

The end is just the beginning for graduating seniors. This final year of high school is a time of setting new goals and forming new values. The future holds a variety of challenges and obstacles for the Class of '82. But it took 12 years for them to make it to the Senior year and by using the same spirit and perserverance that got them this far, this graduating class will take the world in stride.

Juniors shine In Viking style

This year's junior class shone individually by participating in Vikettes, band, FBLA, and many other clubs and organizations. As a whole they supported Parkview by buying class rings and accumulating spirit points. They found many new challenges facing them. For some that meant graduating to the ranks of "upperclassmen." For others, the third year of high school meant facing the reality that life, with all its decisions, was just around the corner. Through it all the junior class learned to shine with style.

Sophomores puttin' On the PHS shine

The sophomore year was probably the most easy going year of all. After all, sophomores weren't upperclassmen yet, so the shadow of college or a full-time job was still dim in the future. All tenth graders were requried to take Drivers' Ed. For many it meant getting their own license and dad's set of keys. The year was one of undoubted growth in academics, friendships and self-realization.

Sophomores realize

Great progress

The class of '84 has climbed another rung on the ladder of high school education. They now have only two more to go until they are at the top. And with the experience they have behind them they'll definitely put on the shine.

Frosh provide spirit

It was a big year for the freshmen. They started out right and impressed all of Parkview with the spirit of the class of '85. They showed with determination the stamina it took to grow into the role of PHS students. The freshmen had a special glow that will doubtless continue to grow brighter in the next three years.

At last! A smiling face in the halls, courtesy of Bill Carr.

ART

Adventure was one of the many words describing the art classes this year. Over six hundred students learned such techniques as silk screening, Batik, and still-life drawing. Art classes tried to teach the students enrolled how to see things that they normally wouldn't notice. Art was very important to the students of Parkview.

MUSIC

The directors raised their arms and the music began. Music was a familiar subject to many Parkview students, whether they were instrumentally or vocally inclined. Many hours were spent by the choir, band, and orchestra to prepare for various performances such as concerts, assemblies, combined concerts, and music contests. In April the choir, symphonic band, and orchestra all participated in the state music contest at SMSU. Individuals from the classes took solos or ensembles to the music contest at Central and Drury in March. Junior Elaine Baron commented on the music system at Parkview. She said, "I think it's really good, but I think more people should get involved with it."

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Foreign Languages provided many opportunities for students. The foreign language classes helped students to learn about the culture and life of other countries. It also helped to prepare students for jobs with other countries. Spanish III and IV students taught kindergarteners and first graders at Holland, Delaware, and Cowden schools the basics of Spanish during the third quarter. Many students took foreign languages to help prepare them for careers and college.

LANGUAGE ARTS

Though learning grammar and studying literature was the main objective of English classes, they were not all work and no fun. The classes gave students the chance to express their creativity and uniqueness. English I, English II, American literature, classical literature, and literature of the mysterious were only a few of the English classes offered to Parkview students.

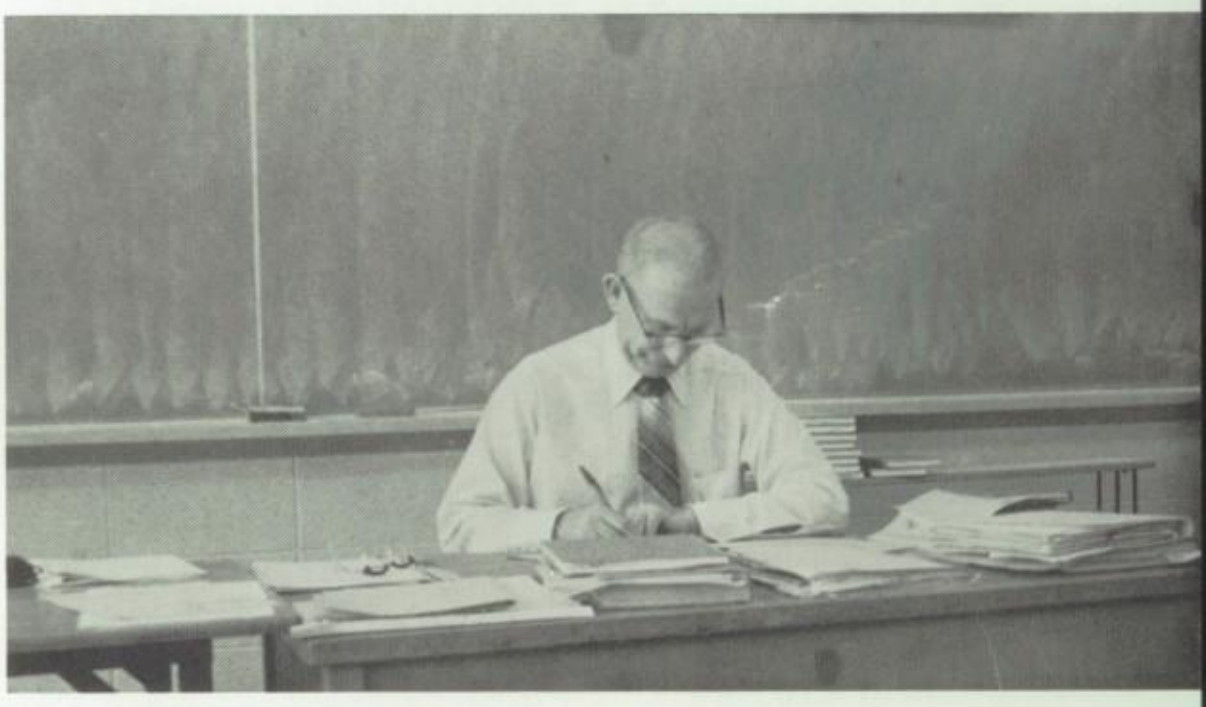
SOCIAL STUDIES



Social Studies classes gave students a chance to study the history of their founding fathers and ancestors, and learn about other cultures around the world. Parkview offered a wide variety of social studies classes ranging from Oriental Cultures, the study of the oriental countries, to American frontiers, the study of the U.S. and the move Westward, to psychology, the study of the mind and how it works.

BUSINESS

One of the most active departments at Parkview was the business department. The department featured accounting, business law, typing, shorthand, and an office procedures class. These classes were designed to prepare students who were college-bound or were going right into the business world, by introducing them to business machines and procedures that are used in offices today.

MATHEMATICS

Working with computers, balancing a checkbook, figuring interest rates and income tax deductions were just a few of the things that were taught in Parkview's math classes. These classes ranged from Math I, which taught basic math, to trigonometry, and included classes such as exploring math, business math and math for employment. These classes and others were intended to teach students the basic math they will need later in life. Also students were able to take a micro computer class to help them learn more about the modern math world.

HOME ECONOMICS

Parkview's Home Economics Department taught students the basics of home living; it taught both male and female students how to cook, sew, and care for a child. INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

Industrial education offered Parkview's young men and women a chance to learn about the machines, materials, and concepts used in the construction of houses and other buildings. The classes offered were home maintenance, general drafting and woodwork, power mechanics, and general metal.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION, HEALTH

Physical Education IV, team and individual sports, outdoor living and physical fitness featured weightlifting, basketball, racquettball and some very original activities such as setting up tents.

Health classes taught freshmen how to save the lives of others with C.P.R. training. By the end of the course most students had become certified in C.P.R. The new Vikings learned to benefit their own lives by understanding the effects of drugs and alcohol and how to deal with the pressures of family life.

DRIVERS' EDUCATION

The Drivers' Education department at P.H.S. had many advantages. There were simulators in which students watched films and realized what it was really like to drive behind the wheel of a car. In the next big step students went out on the streets every hour for actual behind-the-wheel driving experience. Two students went in one car with one trainer. These classes consisted of sophomores who were soon to be 16. The three Drivers' Ed instructors, Cliff McClain, John Hall, and Harlin Hutsell, tried to help their students build skill, judgment, and knowledge as well as better their attitudes toward driving.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

Special Education classes helped those students who needed more attention than was available in regular class rooms. Two special classes centered around the deaf students who attended Parkview for the first year. Mrs. Lynn Lutjen coordinated studies for the deaf students and taught a second semester course in sign language for hearing students who wished to learn to communicate with the hearing impaired.

COOPERATIVE OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION

Cooperative Occupational Education (C.O.E.) was a class mainly for seniors who liked to work and go to school. In the class, students learned about the business world and how to handle every day situations. Types of jobs held by C.O.E. students included fast food services and retail merchandising.

ADMINISTRATION

Getting the 48-cent tax levy passed was one of the main concerns for the school administrators this year. The school board, administrative board, and Parkview's administration worked together to acquaint the voters with the tax levy issue through radio, television, and newspapers. Parkview administrators permitted seniors who were 18 and registered to vote one hour to vote. The passage was a major victory for the school district. Dr. Paul Hagerty served his first year as superintendent of schools.

Lowe, director of curriculum development; Dr. J. T. Hicks, directo federal programs; and Mr. Alton Manning, director of pupil services.

COUNSELORS, DEANS, LIBRARIANS

The counselors, deans, and the librarians helped make the students' stay more enjoyable. Nothing makes the heart skip a beat like receiving a pass to the dean's office. Contrary to popular belief, more help was given than suspensions behind those closed doors. The counselors helped students in scheduling and career decisions. The librarians provided help, whether to find a book or get change for the copy machine.

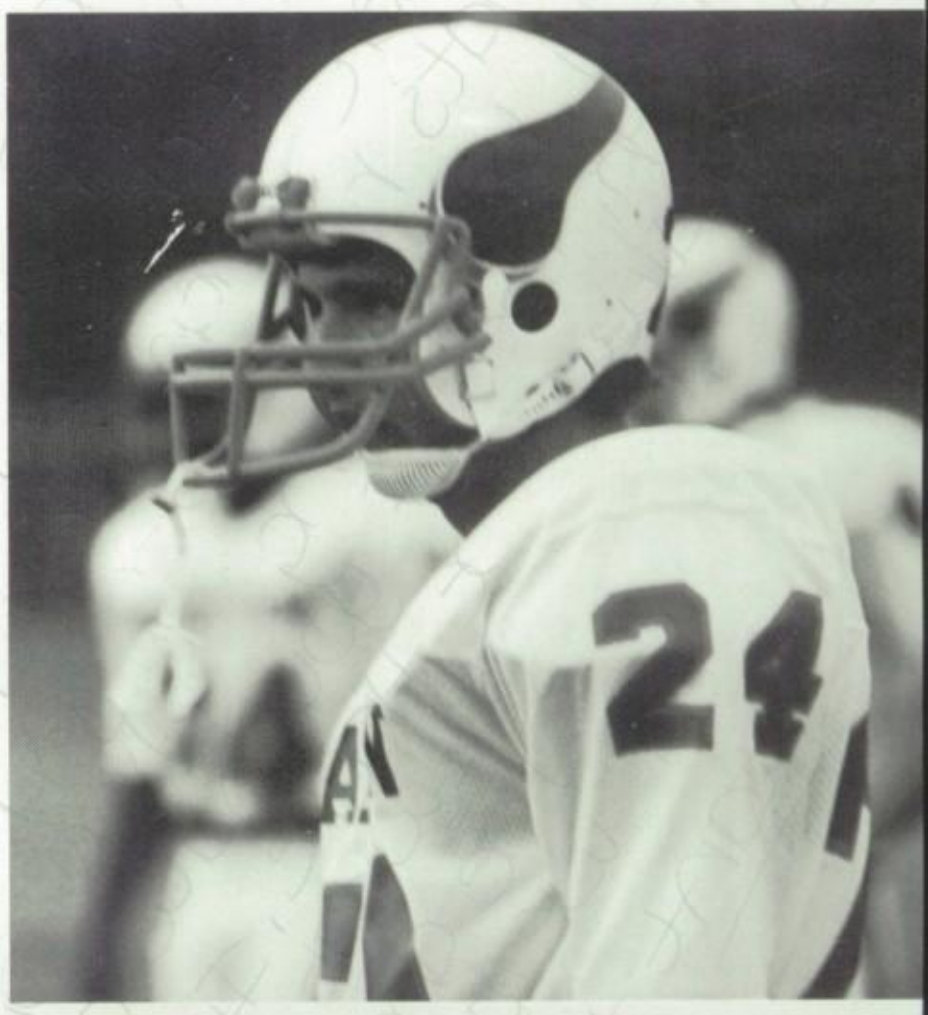
Varsity wins season

The varsity gridders ended their season well above .500 with a 6-3 record, losing only to Glendale, Kickapoo, and Joplin Parkwood. Senior tight end and defensive end Joe Close, senior quarterback Mike Lawson, and senior offensive and defenisve tackle Steve Smith made the Springfield! magazine All-City team. Sophomore Gary McCrimmons' kickoff return touchdown run at the Glendale game had the Parkview stands roaring. This, along with other great plays, retained Parkview's standard of excellence.



Senior Mike Davis looks on as he prepares to join the action on the playing field.

Varsity takes many Tournament trophies

The varsity boys' basketball team won their share of tournaments this year. Early in the season the boys placed first in the Raytown South tourney. They also grabbed a first in the Lees Summit tournament in January. The Vikings fought to share second place with Glendale in the Holiday Tournament at Parkview Dec. 26-30.

JV, frosh gain

Team experience

Parkview's junior varsity opened their season in the Ozark Conference junior varsity tournament with two close losses. Their first victory came in St. Louis against St. Pius, 44-19. Coach Bob Crawford attempted to strengthen his team by bringing in two freshmen players. The boys freshmen team began their season on a bad note by losing to Hillcrest 41-40. But that was one of the few times that they lost. The frosh team had a sparkling record of 11-4. Joplin Parkwood, Kickapoo, Joplin Memorial, and Central were easy prey for the Vikes. At one point during the season the freshmen boasted a six-game winning streak.

Basketball

Team resets

The season's girls' basketball squad was guided by Coach Susan Everett. Winding up their basketball careers at Parkview were two seniors, Lisa Baily and Josie Viets. While gaining very few victories, the team showed much improvement in their fundamental skills. Kim Romines and Paige Salveter, both freshmen, showed a lot of ability and potential.

Baseball team Works hard

The baseball team had a winning season with the coaching of Dale Neth. They finished with a 7 and 2 record. Howard Bell led the team with a batting average of 345. Howard won the title of most valuable player in the 4th of July tournament. Other outstanding members were Joe Pilgram, Jimmy Schnaath, and Mike Babcock. Tom Britt was the only freshman to make the varsity squad.

Girl golfers take state record

The girls' golf team did an outstanding job. They remained undefeated throughout the conference and district competition, and took second at state. The team consisted of Juniors Cindy Shook, Vicki Woodall, Kim Applegate, and Tina Murray. Lindbergh High of St. Louis took state first place away from Parkview. They had the advantage of the playing course throughout the year, while state was Parkview's first chance at playing it. All four starting players, Kim Applegate, Tina Murray, Cindy Shook, and Vicki Woodall, placed in the top 15 golfers in the state.

Underclassmen Aid swim team

The girls' swim team was aided by youth this season. It mostly consisted of underclassmen. Jill Myers and Karen Wilbur were the only seniors. With the coaching of Dave Sturgis the team had many victories.

Solo medalists

Dominate team

The boys' swim team may have been small, but the individual honors more than made up for that fact. Junior Shane Hawkins held four Parkview records in the 100 backstroke, 500 freestyle, 100 backstroke, and 200 individual medley. The 400 freestyle relay team of Shane Hawkins, Mark Hamilton, Robby Atwater, and Ricky Carpenter had the second best time in the city. For the second year in a row Shane Hawkins qualified for the state swim meet in Columbia during February.

Girls' track sets records

Early season practices confined the track members to Parkview's halls where the girls' track team ran and lifted weights. In late November and December the girls had off-season practices at 6:30 in the morning. The coaches stressed conditioning with vigorous workouts which paid off for Senior Lorie Tracy, who set six new Parkview records.

Tracksters condition well

Stretching, lifting weights, jumping, running, and more running. The Parkview track team attributed its many successes to constant practice, and to Head Coach Don Keeton and Assistant Head Coach Benny Lawson. Parkview excelled in the field events such as the high jump, polevaulting, shot put, and discus. Parkview also excelled in running. Last year the 800-meter relay team of Gary McCrimmins, Mike Lawson, Phil Harris, and Jeff Chism qualified for state.

Fads, fashions Make '82 unique

Fashions change a lot over the years and during 1981-82 knickers were very popular. Boots with jean shirts, loafers, and the preppy look were also big fashion news. Designer jeans were out as were cowboy hats. T-shirts, books, and records remained long standing student fads.

Big-name talent Marks concerts

Many students looked forward to the concerts produced by well-known groups and individual artists. Students could be seen camping out the night before the box office opened in order to get good seats.

Jobs, home life Occupy students

Instead of asking ole' dad for a few bucks, students decided to be independent and earn a little spending money of their own. Students worked in restaurants, hospitals, offices, and car washes to earn their way. When people needed to escape, where could they go? The phrase, "Home Sweet Home," still meant the same as it did centuries ago! Home was a good place to study, think, and just relax. Parkview students found that, as in years past, home was still a sanctuary.

Together We Shone

There was something special about this year. We shone proudly individually and together because we were Parkview. As the year came to a close the seniors prepared for their future and their final shining moment at PHS — graduation. Though it might be a smile or winning a championship Parkview will always have a unique shine all its own because WE ARE PARKVIEW.

Above: Between classes provides a time for students to get outside and talk with friends. Right: Many students bought the 1982 senior charm as a reminder of their special year. Far right: Senior Class President Randy Randall takes it easy after he gets his diploma.

Dear Husband,

We have had some fun times this year. I wish we could have had more classes together. I remember when Mrs Summers thought there was some romance between us she only knew we were husband & wife. I am so glad I got to know you. You were always there when I needed you. The first time we ever did anything together we went to the haunted house. All the memories were and are so good. I was so relieved to hear that you were not going to move. I would have been doomed in Summers class. Thanks for the memories. I hope we have more classes next year but I would settle for 1. Hope I see you over the summer.. Good luck in everything.

Love ya lots and always,
your wife,
Rhonda

Chris,
I'm sorry we didn't have any classes

Dear Chris,
Where do I begin !! I will start with the first day of school. You were really treasure to me. I really like you a lot. You are friendship to mean a lot to me. You never said one mean thing to me. I hope are friendship grows thru the remaining yrs. at P.H.S. I can't believe you are one of my best friend. I have always wanted a best friend that was a guy, and I am glad it is you. I hope you have the best summer, and I sure will have to do something this summer. Keep in touch !! Love ya, Kim
Have a nice day ☺ !!

P.S.

Chris,
You ARE REALLY A NICE guy & I REALLY like You Alot! We HAVE HAD Alot of FUN time to-gATHER! Remember last summer AT Dickie pool? "UNDERWATER kissing!" You're great!
Love YA,
Molly

Chris, it's been this of fun really and I'm met you. You're super nice guy. I hope I get to see you over the summer. Call me sometime. I luv ya sweet! Love ya lot.
Tonya

CHRIS
~~YOU KNOW THAT~~
YOU KNOW THAT I'M BETTER THAN YOU IN EVERYTHING, FOOTBALL, BASKETBALL, TRACK BUT I LET YOU HAVE ALL THE PUBLICITY, JUST KIDDING, YOU DID A GREAT JOB IN EVERYTHING HAVE A GREAT SUMMER AND LET'S KICK ASS NEXT YEAR, MARK
STUD
GODDARD

Chris,

I am really glad we had history together and "got to know each other". I hope we have classes together next year (I hope) and you "help" in this all your ready are a sweet to mention a TOTAL FOX") See ya this summer (not

Love
Luanna

(Just kidding)

Chris,

Well our "frosh" year is finally over. I'm super glad we met, your a super neat guy! Stay sweet. I hope you have a fantastic summer! x I hope we have more than one class together next year. Give me a call this summer well have to do somethin!

Love,
Rhonda

P.S. try to stay out of trouble this summer HA/HA

Chris,

This year went by pretty fast, hope this year is Good luck in football Start varsity. Stay Cool. And see you this summer.

The Pfeiffs

Chris,

Well another year here and gone. I'm really glad that we've remained such great friends through it all. We've had alot of great times together (Melinda surprise party) ha ha! You have always been someone that I could talk to. Gosh I think I've told you everything! We've had some fun talks on the phone too. Even though this year hasn't turned out to be so great I think it was a good year for us (friendship wise) I don't think we ever got in a fight or anything. That's hard to believe I guess. I'm sure we'll continue to be the best of friends no matter what. I'm glad you always listened to my many problems and I thank you for it. Also thanks for all the good advice and sometimes not so good advice. I appreciated it alot! I know we're gonna have alot of fun together this summer when you aren't working and we're gonna have a blast when you get your car. Remember you said you'd drive slow when I'm with you! You are a super-good-lookin' guy and I'm sure you'll have alot of girlfriends next year. Then you can tell me all your problems. A pleasant change huh? Well I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. Thanks for all the good times, I'm sure we have many more to come!

Love ya alot!

Tracy James

Chris,

don't bio Bills class Great?!? ee think I could have done without the frog. You are such a sweet and super good friend. Maybe next year we can get some classes together. You really have a lot going for you.
Good luck in everything you do. Hope to see you this summer.

Love Ya, sr.

Chris,

Twas wonderful
3 years, and they have all been great.
Algebra has been a blast, thanks to you. You and Jenny had some pretty funny times in there. A few bad, but not much! Ha Ha. Your a super special friend.
You've helped me thru a lot of problems. especially Brad.
putting up with Chris (about) and Pharonning & listening
Brad!!! You're a super sweet and good looking guy.
Remember my surprise Birthday party, you and Jenny had fun! Didn't you? Call me and we will all be will do a lot of doing for you
Hope you all me alot. I'm sure getting together and over the summer.

ya,
Melinda

Chris,
Well this has been a fast year! I'm glad we finally made it to P.V. I'm glad we've been such good friends all these years! Keep being the Stud & Hope I'll see ya later this summer! & have fun and take care! Ya in some classes!

Love -
Elizabeth

Chris, another years gone by & I'm readin "honored" to have gotten the "pleasure" to meet & get to know you! you're a sweet guy Chris & be sure to not change too much over the summer! Remember those races we got (almost) in trouble for in History! I almost died when she read it! I hope you & Teresa get together & make we could double some time! or well, I better close this up saying: Good Luck next year & make it's have classes with ya!

Love,
Anne

Chris,
Boy this year went by super fast. I think you kicked some butt in football, bball and track. And all the other junk we pull in History classes. I like the time I hit Mrs. Summers in the head with a basketball. This summer we should get some parties goin. See ya this summer.
